Dnipro, Ukraine, 49000

Dear Ms. Danylova:

On behalf of the Government of the United States of America, I am pleased to invite you to participate in a professional exchange program on the topic, "The U.S. Experience in Supporting Military Veterans," which will take place from January 22 through February 1, 2017. Your program will begin in Washington, DC, and will include visits to several American cities. This project has been developed under the framework of the International Visitor Leadership Program (IVLP), which is administered by the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs.

The program will consist of meetings, appointments, and discussions as address your professional interests. This group project will familiarize you with the work, management, and development of rehabilitation centers and the services they provide. Arrangements will also explore how the centers cooperate with government and non-government organizations.

The U.S. Department of State will provide domestic travel within the United States. You will also receive an allowance sufficient to cover the costs of lodging, food, and incidental expenses. Professional escort-interpreters will accompany you for the duration of the visit. For further information about the program, please contact Mr. Serhiy Chornovan, Cultural Exchange Assistant, at the Public Affairs Section of the U.S. Embassy in Kyiv by telephone at (044) 521-5773 or 5674.

Sincerely,
