

MEMORANDUM OF COOPERATION

between

Buckinghamshire New University

and

Kyryvy Rih State Pedagogical University

This Memorandum of Cooperation (MoC) defines the relations and directions of cooperation between Buckinghamshire New University and Kyryvy Rih State Pedagogical University that are named as Sides (universities).

The Sides conclude this Memorandum based on the common vision of developing bilateral cooperation, mutual scientific and educational exchange in the field of higher education.

The Sides identify the following possible areas of cooperation for realization of this Memorandum:

1. Organization of joint events (conferences, seminars, trainings) on the basis of higher educational institutions of both Sides.
2. Development and implementation of joint educational and scientific projects, including involvement of international funds and programmes.
3. Study and research visits of the faculty members and research staff members of both Sides.
4. Involvement into peer review and/or preparation of scientific, educational publications of academic staff of both Sides.
5. Student educational and cultural exchanges (joint study programmes, language schools, volunteering activities).

The Sides agreed on the following:

- the Sides interact with each other in order to resolve further questions on implementation of this Memorandum through authorized representatives who are delegated by both Sides for consideration of current issues and holding of joint events;

- unless other was not agreed, the Sides agree that each of them alone bears its own expenses according to the tasks of this Memorandum;

- the Sides consider this Memorandum as a declaration about intentions that does not lead to legal or financial consequences or obligations for any of them;

- relations of the Sides that are defined in this Memorandum are exclusively relations of independent Sides;

- each Side has the right to cooperate with the third Side on any issues similar to those that are provided in this Memorandum.

The Sides understand that concrete measures for cooperation and ways of their implementation may be specified in additional agreements which may be signed in future (if necessary).

This Memorandum will enter into force from the day of its signing and will remain in force for a period of five years.

The end of this Memorandum will take effect three months after the notification of a certain Side will be received.

2 (two) copies in English of this Memorandum are written, 1 (one) copy is for each Side, all texts are equally valid.
